Western District of Texas
Austin Division

United States of America

v.

Diego Ramirez-Torres

Defendant

Case No. 1:23-cr-65-RP-1

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Part I - Eligibility for Detention

On the Government's Motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (Dkt. 2) and Defendant's Motion for Bond (Dkt. 8), the Court held a detention hearing on April 19, 2023, and found that detention is warranted. This order sets forth the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), in addition to any other findings made at the hearing.

Part II - Analysis and Statement of the Reasons for Detention

After considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the pretrial services report, and the evidence and arguments of counsel presented at the detention hearing, the Court concludes that the defendant must be detained pending trial because the Government has proven:

- ☒ By clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the safety of the community.
- ☒ By a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required.

In addition to any findings made on the record at the hearing, the reasons for detention include the following:

- ☒ Weight of evidence against the defendant is strong
- ☒ Subject to lengthy period of incarceration if convicted
- ☒ Prior criminal history
- ☐ Participation in criminal activity while on probation, parole, or supervision
- ☒ History of violence or use of weapons
- ☒ History of alcohol or substance abuse
- ☐ Lack of stable employment
- ☐ Lack of stable residence
- ☐ Lack of financially responsible sureties
- ☐ Lack of significant community or family ties to this district
- ☐ Significant family or other ties outside the United States
- ☒ Lack of legal status in the United States
- ☒ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
- ☐ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered

- ☒ Prior attempts to evade law enforcement
- ☐ Use of alias(es) or false documents
- ☐ Background information unknown or unverified
- ☐ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

Other Reasons or Further Explanation:

My decision is based on the identified factors, in addition to any findings made on the record at the hearing. Mr. Ramirez-Torres possesses no documentation allowing legal residence in the United States. He has been convicted of failure to ID; illegal reentry; burglary of a habitation; driving while intoxicated and failure to stop and render aid (a felony hit-and-run offense); manufacture/delivery of a controlled substance; unlawful restraint; and evading arrest/detention. Evidence shows that two of Mr. Ramirez-Torres's criminal cases, when he was 23 and 36 years old, involved his romantic partners. He also has been removed from the United States twice and voluntarily returned to Mexico three times, unlawfully returning in each instance. Considering all information available, the government has established by a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required, and by clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Ramirez-Torres's release would pose a serious danger to the community and that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
